Please note that the audition starts promptly at 9 am and latecomers will not be admitted.

An exceptional opportunity for male and female dancers to audition for the re-staging/tour of Strange Fish (late 2010 into 2011) and a new work to be researched in 2010 and developed and toured in 2011/12.

Strange Fish

For the first time in DV8's history Lloyd Newson would like to rework one of his classic productions, Strange Fish. The work toured internationally to great acclaim in 1992 and was turned into a film for the BBC the following year, winning numerous awards. The work is an exploration into a woman's search for friendship, love and faith, featuring an original score by Jocelyn Pook and Adrian Johnston. Many of the original performers will return for this revival however we will be looking to recast some female and male dancers.

New Work 2010/2012

A new work will be researched in 2010 and made late 2011 for touring in 2012. The work will be based on verbatim interviews. As the interviews will be conducted in English, applicants for this project should have a strong grasp of the English language and accents.
